

TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR THE SUPPLY OF MINOR GOODS AND SERVICES TO ENERVEN ENERGY INFRASTRUCTURE PTY LTD

1. Application of these Conditions

- 1.1 These Conditions apply to each supply of Goods and/or Services by the Supplier to the Customer pursuant to a Purchase Order. Where there is no other applicable written and signed agreement and the Supplier accepts (or is deemed to accept) a Purchase Order (in writing, verbally, by electronic transmission, by part performance or by other conduct), the Supplier enters a separate and independently terminable agreement with the Customer in relation to the Goods and/or Services referred to in the Purchase Order on these Conditions, the Supply Chain Specification and the terms in the relevant Purchase Order (referred to in these Conditions as the 'Contract').
- 1.2 To the extent permitted by law, no contrary or other conditions purported to be included in the Contract by the Supplier (whether in its quote, delivery confirmation, invoices or otherwise) will apply to the Contract or in substitution to the Contract unless expressly accepted in writing by the Customer.
- 1.3 Any inconsistencies between the documents forming part of the Contract shall be resolved in the following order of priority: firstly, any special conditions in the Purchase Order; secondly, any other details and attachments to the Purchase Order; thirdly, these Conditions.

2. Definitions and Interpretation

In these Conditions and the Contract, unless a contrary intention is apparent:

"Chain of Responsibility legislation" means the road safety regime contained in State, Territory and Commonwealth legislation that provides that all parties who commission the carriage of goods or the provision of services by or involving heavy vehicles on roads may be held liable for breaches of road safety, and road related laws applicable to the performance of the Supplier's obligations under the Contract and/or vehicles used in the course of the Supplier performing those obligations.

"Tax Invoice" means an invoice that meets the requirements prescribed by the Australian Taxation Office and the Customer from time to time.

3. Sale, Delivery and Installation

3.1 The Supplier must:

- (i) supply the Goods to the Customer free of encumbrances;
- (ii) deliver the Goods to the Customer on a Free In Store basis within the agreed time (such time being of the essence), or if no time is agreed, within a reasonable time from the date of the relevant Purchase Order;
- (iii) unload the Goods and where the Customer carries out that unloading, it is carried out on behalf of the Supplier and is at the Supplier's risk provided such unloading by EEI occurs at the request of the Supplier; and

- (iv) install the Goods, in all respects as directed by the Customer.

3.2 The Supplier must complete provision of the Services by the date for completion agreed with the Customer and time shall be of the essence in respect of such date. If no date has been agreed, the Supplier must complete provision of the Services within a reasonable time of the date of the relevant Purchase Order.

4. Testing, Acceptance and Rejection

4.1 The Customer may test the Goods (including at the Supplier's premises) as it sees fit before, at and after delivery and installation.

4.2 In the event that the Goods and/or Services delivered or performed (as applicable) do not satisfy the Customer (acting reasonably and having regard to the Customer's requirements and the Contract), the Customer may reject the Goods by written notice to the Supplier and in addition to any other right may:

- (i) require the Supplier to reimburse to the Customer the Price (or any part) paid in respect of such unacceptable Goods or Services; or
- (ii) require the Supplier to replace the unacceptable Goods or re-perform the Services in a reasonable time required by the Customer to the satisfaction of the Customer in accordance with the Contract; or
- (iii) if the Supplier does not comply with the foregoing, have a third party re supply the Goods or re perform the Services at the Supplier's cost.

4.3 Subject to the foregoing, the Customer will accept the Goods upon being satisfied (acting reasonably) that the Goods comply with the Contract, are fully functional and meet the Customer's requirements.

4.4 If the Customer rejects the Goods, risk in the Goods remains with the Supplier and the Supplier must immediately remove the Goods from the Customer's premises at the Supplier's cost.

5. Price, Taxes, Variations and Concessions

5.1 The Supplier must bear all customs and import duties (including anti-dumping duties) levied.

5.2 If the Price is in Australian currency, but is specified as being subject to variation by reason of any change in the relative value of the Australian dollar and the currency of another nation ("foreign currency"), then when seeking payment of the Price, the Supplier must provide the Customer with evidence satisfactory to the Customer of:

- (i) the portion of the Price that is subject to variation, including all applicable customs documentation; and
- (ii) any relevant payment by the Supplier in the foreign currency.

5.3 If the Price is specified as being payable in a foreign currency, then:

- (i) the Customer will pay the Price in the foreign currency into the Supplier's nominated Bank account; and
- (ii) the Supplier must provide such evidence relating to its obligation to pay for the Goods or

- the Services in the foreign currency as the Customer may require.
- 5.4 The Supplier shall ensure that any invoice or other request or demand for payment shall constitute a tax invoice under the relevant GST legislation enabling the Customer to claim input tax credits in respect of the supplies to which the invoice relates and shall include reference to the relevant Purchase Order number.
- 5.5 The Price will not be subject to variation unless a variation formula is set out in the relevant Purchase Order. If the Price is subject to variation, and the Supplier claims an amount is due by reason of an event contemplated by the variation formula, the Supplier must satisfy the Customer (acting reasonably) of its entitlement to such variation. The Customer will only consider a variation claim if the Supplier:
- (i) claims the amount of the variation as soon as practicable; and
 - (ii) provides all and any information required by the Customer to verify the Supplier's entitlement to the payment of any additional amount.
- 5.6 No Retrospective Price Variation
- (i) No variation to a subsequent invoice will be permitted on account of any variation the Supplier was entitled to but did not claim in respect of a previous invoice after the expiry of fourteen (14) days after such invoice was issued to EEI.
 - (ii) Notwithstanding clause 5.6(a), the right of the Supplier to apply any Price Variation Formula in respect of a previously issued invoice will not apply to any Goods which are intended to be on sold by the Customer.
- 6. Customs
- The Customer may make applications for customs or import duty concessions that it considers appropriate. If any such application is successful, and the Price includes an amount for customs or import duty at a higher rate, the Customer may deduct the difference from the Price payable to the Supplier under these Conditions.
- 7. Payment
- 7.1 Upon acceptance of the Goods by the Customer or completion of the Services to the Customer's requirements (as the case may be), the Supplier must provide a correctly rendered Tax Invoice referencing the relevant Purchase Order number to the Customer's Accounts Payable department at the following details:
- Email: accountspayable@sapowernetworks.com.au or post,
Accounts Payable
SA Power Networks
GPO Box 77, ADELAIDE SA 5001
- 7.2 Subject to receipt of a correctly rendered Tax Invoice and subject to the Supplier's compliance with the Contract in all respects, the Customer will pay the Supplier the Price pursuant to the payment terms specified in the relevant Purchase Order and these Conditions.

8. Title and Risk

Title to and risk in the Goods will pass to the Customer on acceptance.

9. Warranties

- 9.1 The Supplier warrants that the Goods will:
- (i) unless otherwise agreed with the Customer prior to the date of the relevant Purchase Order, be new on delivery to the Customer;
 - (ii) conform with any description applied to the Goods and any sample of them provided by the Supplier;
 - (iii) meet the Customer's requirements, the requirements in the relevant Purchase Order and be fit for the purpose of those requirements;
 - (iv) be free of any defects in materials, workmanship or installation;
 - (v) be of merchantable quality and conform to any legally applicable standards; and
 - (vi) be manufactured and constructed in accordance with the quality assurance program specified in the relevant Purchase Order (if any).
- 9.2 Without limiting any other provision of these Conditions:
- (i) if a defect appears in the Goods in the 24 months or such other period as may be specified in a Purchase Order ("Warranty Period") from the date on which they are accepted by the Customer then at the Customer's sole discretion either:
 - (a) the Supplier must remedy the defect (at the Customer's option) by repairing or replacing the Goods without charge to the Customer; or
 - (b) the Customer will remedy the defect by repairing or replacing the Goods and invoice the Supplier for any costs reasonably incurred or allocated by the Customer; and
 - (c) in either case the Customer may invoice the Supplier for any direct costs reasonably incurred or allocated by the Customer arising from the defect;
 - (ii) the costs of and incidental to the repair, rectification or replacement of defective Goods (including re-delivery) will be paid by the Supplier; and
 - (iii) any Goods repaired or replaced during the Warranty Period shall have a further warranty period of equivalent duration from the date of the repair or replacement.
- 9.3 The Supplier warrants that the Services, the Goods, and any other services provided in connection with the Goods, do not and will not infringe the Intellectual Property Rights of any person.
- 9.4 The Supplier warrants that the Services (and any services provided in connection with the Goods) will be performed by appropriately qualified and experienced personnel with all due care and skill, in accordance with all applicable law and best industry practice and in such manner as meets the Customer's requirements.

- 9.5 If the Supplier breaches the warranties referred to in this clause 9, the Customer may at its option and without prejudice to any of its other rights:
- (i) require the Supplier to remedy the breach, including by re-supply of the Goods and/or Services; or
 - (ii) terminate the Contract immediately by notice in writing.

10. Sub-contracting and Assignment

- 10.1 The Supplier may not assign or sub-contract the performance of any matter or thing required by the Contract without the prior written consent of the Customer (which may be withheld or granted subject to conditions).
- 10.2 Any subcontracting of the Supplier's obligations under the Contract does not relieve the Supplier of any of its obligations under such Contract and the Supplier will be liable to the Customer for the acts and omissions of its subcontractors and any of that subcontractor's Personnel as if they were the Supplier's acts or omissions.

11. Confidentiality and Privacy

- 11.1 Each party must keep confidential all terms of the Purchase Order and all information from or concerning the other party (or its business practices) that it acquires as a result of any dealings under this Contract or any other agreement between the parties .
- 11.2 Each party will ensure that any Personal Information supplied by the other party will be protected against misuse and loss, and from unauthorised access, modification or disclosure in the same way as if the receiving party was bound by the requirements of the Australian Privacy Principles under the Privacy Act, regardless of whether or not the receiving party is subject to the Privacy Act. Each party will ensure that any subcontractor of that party is bound to comply with privacy obligations equivalent to those of the receiving party under the Contract.
- 11.3 Without limiting the other provisions in this clause 10.2, if either party is, or becomes, aware that there has been an Eligible Data Breach or there are reasonable grounds to suspect or believe that there may have been, or has been, an Eligible Data Breach in respect of Personal Information, the notified party must forthwith notify the other, not notify any other person of the Eligible Data Breach (except to the extent that it is required to do so at law) and comply at its own cost with all reasonable directions of the other party in respect of such Eligible Data Breach.
- 11.4 The parties agree that the obligations contained in clause 11 does not limit or inhibit the Customer's ability to deal with the Confidential Information in its ordinary course of business including but not limited to the disclosure of Confidential Information among the members of the Customer Group and the disclosure of quotes or product specifications to other suppliers for the purpose of engaging those suppliers in the provision of goods and/or services which are similar or identical to the Goods and Services.

12. Termination

- 12.1 Either party may, subject to any other provision of the Contract and without limiting any other right, or remedy, immediately terminate the Contract if the other party:
- (i) breaches the Contract or any Purchase Order and (if capable of remedy) has failed to remedy that breach within fourteen (14) days of written notice from the terminating party specifying the alleged breach and requiring remedy; or
 - (ii) advises the terminating party that it is not, or will not be able to, perform all of its obligations under the Contract.
- 12.2 Any additional cost to the Customer as a result of a breach of this Agreement by the Supplier for the acquisition of replacement Goods or Services from a third party will be an amount due by the Supplier to the Customer immediately on the Customer making demand for that amount.
- 12.3 The Customer may, at any time, cancel the whole or any part of the Purchase Order. Such cancellation will extinguish any further obligation of the Customer to the Supplier under the Contract (other than payment of that portion of the Price in respect of Goods or Services already supplied or performed as at the date of cancellation).
- 12.4 Termination, completion or expiry of the Contract for any reason shall not extinguish or otherwise affect any rights of either party against the other which accrued prior to the time of the termination, completion or expiry or otherwise relate to or may arise at any future time from any breach or non-observance of obligations of the Contract which arose prior to the time of the termination, completion or expiry. The provisions of the Contract which, by their nature, survive termination, completion or expiry will continue to survive (including without limitation clauses 4.4, 9.2, 11.1, 13.1, 13.6).

13. Indemnities and Insurance

- 13.1 The Supplier indemnifies and must keep indemnified the Customer and its Personnel from and against any and all liabilities, expenses, costs, losses or damage suffered incurred or allocated by the Customer or its Personnel that arises out of or as a consequence of:
- (i) Physical loss or damage to property of the Customer or any third party caused or contributed by the acts or omission of the Supplier or its Personnel (except to the extent that such loss is caused or contributed to by the Customer or its Personnel);
 - (ii) any breach of the Contract (including any breach of warranty) by the Supplier, or any negligent act or omission or misconduct of the Supplier or its Personnel;
 - (iii) the insolvency of the Supplier, or any claim against the Customer or its Personnel by the Supplier's Personnel arising as a result of a

- matter between the relevant person and the Supplier;
- (iv) any defect or non-compliance in the Goods or the Services.
- 13.2 Except in respect of injury to or death of any person (for which no limit applies), the liability of the Supplier under the indemnity in this clause 13 is limited to TEN MILLION DOLLARS ($10,000,000.00) for each event.
- 13.3 The Supplier must effect and maintain for a period of not less than seven (7) years after the expiration or termination of a Contract:
- (i) a professional indemnity insurance policy to cover claims by the Customer against the Supplier arising out of or incidental to any act or omission by the Supplier in connection with the carrying out of the Services;
 - (ii) public liability and product liability insurance policies to cover all liability to third parties for personal injury (including illness), death, property damage and economic loss; and
 - (iii) an insurance policy against any liability at law which the Supplier may have to any of its employees, or will have self-insured status pursuant to the Return to Work Act 2014 (SA).
- 13.4 The insurance policy referred to in clause 13.3(i) will be for not less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) for any one event and the insurance policy referred to in clause 13.3(ii) will be for not less than ten million dollars ($10,000,000) for any one event unless otherwise specified in the relevant Purchase Order.
- 13.5 The Supplier must provide evidence to the Customer of the currency of its insurance policies referred to in clause 13.3 upon request by the Customer.
- 13.6 Each party shall not be responsible to the other for any Consequential Loss suffered, incurred or allocated as a result of a breach of any provision of the Contract by that party.
- 13.7 The Customer holds each indemnity given by the Supplier under this Contract for and on behalf of each member of the Customer Group.
- 14. Compliance with Laws
- 14.1 The Supplier must obtain all necessary approvals, authorisations and licences required in order to perform and comply with its obligations under the Contract and without limiting the foregoing, must comply with (and must ensure that any officer, employee, agent, contractor or sub-contractor of the Supplier complies with):
- (i) all applicable laws (including without limitation laws in respect of work health and safety; anti-slavery, human-trafficking, and migration laws; and all relevant Chain of Responsibility Legislation); and
 - (ii) the requirements of any relevant government agency,
- in supplying the Goods, performing the Services and carrying out its obligations under the Contract.
- 14.2 The Supplier must, when reasonably requested by the Customer, provide such information as the Customer reasonably requires to satisfy itself that

- the Supplier is compliant (and that any officer, employee, agent, contractor or sub-contractor of the Supplier is compliant) with this clause 13.7.
- 14.3 Upon any reasonable request from the Customer from time to time, and at no charge to the Customer, the Supplier must provide to the Customer any information in connection with these Conditions that the Customer requires in order to comply with any law, policy or government reporting requirement.
- 15. Record Keeping
- 15.1 The Supplier must keep full, true, up to date and proper records and books of account ("Records") regarding the Goods and Services provided under this Contract.
- 15.2 The Supplier must provide the Customer with a copy of such Records within seven (7) days of any request by the Customer, together with such further information in respect of the Supplier's performance of this Contract, the Supplier's Personnel and the Supplier's financial position as may be requested by the Customer.
- 15.3 The Supplier will retain Records for seven (7) years after completion of the Contract.
- 15.4 The Customer (or its representative) may audit the Records and the Supplier will ensure it and its Personnel assist and co-operate in the undertaking of any such audit.
- 16. Work Health and Safety
- Without limiting any other obligation of the Supplier under the Contract, the Supplier must (and must ensure that its Personnel) comply in every respect with any and all requirements, directions, policies and procedures of the Customer regarding work health and safety and any person's use of, or access to, the Customer's premises and will promptly notify the Customer in writing of any incident or accident occurring on the Customer's premises.
- 17. Vienna Convention
- Where the Supplier is incorporated outside the Commonwealth of Australia, the parties acknowledge that this Agreement is not subject to the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods adopted at Vienna, Austria on 10 April 1980..
- 18. Trusts
- In the event that the Supplier enters into a Contract as trustee of a trust (whether or not such trust is disclosed to the Customer), it is liable both in its own right and as trustee of such trust.
- 19. Set Off
- 19.1 Without prejudice to any other rights of the Supplier, the Supplier may withhold, deduct or set off any of the following from or against any amount owing by the Customer to the Supplier under the Contract, any other agreement, or at law :
- (i) any amount owing by the Customer to the Supplier under this Agreement, any other agreement between the parties, or at law;
 - (ii) any bona fide claim for payment of an amount which the Supplier considers will become a debt due and payable by the Customer to the Supplier, and:

- (A) the Supplier has given the Customer details as to why it has formed the view that it is entitled to set off pursuant to this subclause; and
 - (B) the Customer has failed to satisfy the Supplier (acting reasonably) that such view is incorrect; or
- (iii) any amount agreed by the Customer as due to the Supplier, or finally awarded in arbitration, litigation or expert determination in favour of the Supplier, and which arises out of or in connection with this Agreement, or any other agreement between the parties, or at law; or
- (iv) the amount of any claim for loss, damages, costs or expenses which has been incurred or allocated by the Supplier by reason of any breach of or failure to observe the provisions of this Agreement by the Customer, or any other agreement between the parties, or at law.
- 19.2 Without prejudice to any other rights of the Customer, the Customer may withhold, deduct or set off any of the following from or against any amount owing by the Customer to the Supplier under the Contract, any other agreement between the parties, or at law:
- (i) any amount owing by the Supplier to the Customer for any reason;
 - (ii) any bona fide claim for payment of an amount which the Customer considers will become a debt due and payable by the Supplier to the Customer, and;
 - (A) the Customer has given the Supplier details as to why it has formed the view that it is entitled to set off pursuant to this subclause; and
 - (B) the Supplier has failed to satisfy the Customer (acting reasonably) that such view is incorrect; or
 - (iii) any amount agreed by the Supplier as due to the Customer, or finally awarded in arbitration, litigation or expert determination in favour of the Customer; or
 - (iv) the amount of any claim for loss, damages, costs or expenses which has been incurred or allocated by the Customer by reason of any breach of or failure to observe the provisions of the Contract by the Supplier, or any other agreement between the parties, or at law.
 - (v)

19.3 Any amount set-off under the previous sub-clauses is without prejudice to the rights of the Customer in any subsequent negotiations, arbitration, litigation or expert determination to seek to vary the amount set-off.

20. Terms which may operate unfairly

If the Contract is a Small Business Contract and a term of the Contract would, but for this clause, be Unfair, the Customer may only apply or rely upon that term to the extent that doing so is reasonably necessary to protect the Customer's legitimate interests, and the term in any other event is severed from this Agreement. In this clause, capitalised terms not defined in these Conditions have the meaning given in the Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act 2001 (Cth).

21. Exclusion of Proportionate Liability scheme

To the maximum extent permitted by law, the operation of any law (including without limitation the Law Reform (Contributory Negligence and Apportionment of Liability) Act 2001 (SA)) which imposes or provides for a scheme of proportionate liability or apportioning liability between concurrent wrongdoers is excluded from the Contract and cannot be relied upon by either party to the Contract.

22. Governing Law

The Contract is governed by the laws of South Australia and the parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of South Australia.

23. Special Conditions

- (i) The Special Conditions (if any) shall be incorporated into and form part of this Agreement and in the event of any inconsistency between the Special Conditions and any other part of this Agreement, the Special Conditions shall prevail to the extent of such inconsistency.
- (ii) Any reference to "this Agreement" in any Special Condition shall be deemed to refer to this Agreement.
